

The Pencil Parable

In the beginning, the Pencil Maker spoke to the pencil saying:

“There are 5 things you need to know before I send you out to the world. Always remember them and you will become the best pencil you can be.”

1. You will be able to do many great things but only if you allow yourself to be held in someone’s hand.
2. You will experience a painful sharpening from time to time but this is required if you are to become a better pencil.
3. You have the ability to correct any mistakes you might make.
4. The most important part of you will always be what’s inside.
5. No matter what the condition, you must continue to write. You must always have a clear, legible mark no matter how difficult the situation.

The pencil understood, promising to remember, and went into the box fully understanding its Makers purpose.

What we must realize is that each one of us is that pencil and there are 5 things you must remember

1. You will be able to do many great things but only if you allow yourself to be held in God’s hand. And allow other human beings to access you for the many gifts you possess.
2. You will experience a painful sharpening from time to time, by going through various problems but you’ll need it to become a stronger person.
3. You will be able to correct mistakes you might make or grow through them.
4. The most important part of you will always be on the inside.
5. On every surface you walk, you must leave your mark. No matter what the situation, you must continue to serve God in everything.

Everyone is like a pencil created by the Maker for a unique and special purpose.

By understanding and remembering, let us proceed with our life on this earth having a meaningful purpose in our heart and a relationship with God daily.
