

Social Justice - Changing Times

Restorative Justice & Prison Ministry

Our national social justice committee includes the topics of advocacy, systemic change and restorative justice. There is little doubt about the relationship between the criminal justice system and poverty. One might argue that poverty is a major factor in why people turn to crime as a means to...

Creating affordable housing... going beyond charity

"My people will abide in a peaceful habitation, in secure dwellings, and in quiet resting places."

Isaiah 32:18

A safe, secure, affordable home is a human right in Canada. Yet many families, seniors and individuals of all ages have no home, or they...

Safe, secure and affordable housing is a human right

As we near the end of 2020, there are many thoughts, memories, concerns and hopes we likely all have for 2021.

With 2020 came COVID-19, which has quickly grown into a global pandemic that has affected each of us in different ways, including the...

Safe, Secure and Affordable Housing Is a Human Right

Our national housing campaign committee has met every month to fine-tune and finalize the action plan, which many of you have seen in its earlier drafts.

The final version of the plan was presented to and approved by our national board of...

Safe, Secure and Affordable Housing Is a Human Right

Indigenous Peoples and Poverty in Canada

Though poverty in Canada and globally affects people of every race, ethnic group or age, ample evidence shows that it burdens racialized groups to a greater extent.

For this article, I would like to focus...

CHANGING TIMES - June 2020

Safe, Secure and Affordable Housing Is a Human Right

I begin this month's edition by remembering all those who have passed away during the Covid-19 pandemic, especially the many seniors in long-term care homes. Also, may we be thankful for the many healthcare and frontline essential-service workers...

SAFE, SECURE AND AFFORDABLE HOUSING IS A HUMAN RIGHT

As I write the May Changing Times report, we are all experiencing the challenges of dealing with COVID-19 and the uncertainty of when it will ease or, hopefully, end. There will also be more uncertainty as we begin to recover from the pandemic...
